From the editor's chair

A weekend we will never forget

WHAT a weekend! Across Pulman's Country, a wave of patriotism and pride in our communities has soared to the fore, demonstrating all that is good about this great nation.

In towns and villages throughout East Devon, festooned in red, white and blue, neighbours and friends have come together in an unashamed demonstration of their admiration for the Queen's 60-year reign.

Most of them were not spectacular events. There was Maypole dancing, cream teas, fancy dress parades and neighbours just getting together for a Jubilee tea in their back garden.

And nowhere did the Union flag fly with more pride than on the many entries in the annual Colyton Tractor Run which for the first time ventured across the Dorset border where Jubilee fever was just as fervent.

The weather was better than that endured by the Queen and her family, stood shivering on that Royal Barge on the River Thames, although there were fears as we were going to press that the final day of celebrations (Tuesday) might be curtailed by forecasts of heavy rain. But who cares? The celebrations will go on.

We have changed our usual page 2 and 3 format to dedicate maximum space to the Jubilee celebrations and later in the week we will be producing a special souvenir publication on sale at newsagents throughout the area.

This past weekend has produced many happy occasions which will linger long in the memory. In years to come the question: "Where were you for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee?" will be asked many times.

And now for the Olympics!

Praise for a 'very positive' community jubilee effort

NE of Axminster's loudest men, town crier Nick Goodwin, praised the efforts made to make the town fit for a jubilee.

Mr Goodwin could be heard all over the town centre as jubilee celebrations kicked off in earnest on Saturday June 2nd.

When taking a short break from official duties, he told Pulman's View: "It brings the town together. It's fantastic.

"Whether you are a royalist or not, communities come together all over the country. A lot of people have pulled together and are singing from the same hymn sheet.

"The town looks fantastic."
The Mayor of Axminster Councillor

Andrew Moulding was equally enthusiastic. Speaking on Monday, June 4th, he said: "Axminster has responded very positively to Her Majesty's jubilee, which I think we are all very keen to support.

"We have a very full programme of events. There are a lot of people to be thanked."

Councillor Moulding said Saturday's variety show was "excellent" and he had also enjoyed other events that day, including the Arcadia Jazz performance outside Axminster Arts Cafe.

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

He said the weather had been kind on the Saturday, but expressed some concern about the showpiece event on Tuesday, June 5th.

He said: "We were obviously looking forward to the street party but the weather forecast is not great and we have decided to use our fall-back situation of using the Axminster Heritage building in case of inclement weather."

In neighbouring Kilmington, the official four-day Diamond Jubilee Celebrations programme started on Friday, June 1st, with a primary school gala. Maypole dancing took place outside the village hall, cream teas were served and pupils' jubilee-related art work was on display inside.

Saturday featured a treasure hunt and barn dance, which was followed by a picnic, family fun Olympics and other activities the following day. On Monday the celebrations continued with a fancy dress parade.

△ CAPPED: Those who took part in Axminster Town Cricket Club's Kwik Cricket Competition got a green cap each. Unfortunately, there were many caps left over as only five players made it to Cloakham Lawn on Monday June 4th.As a result, coach Andrew Moulding had to improvise and started by running a single wicket competition instead. However the cricket fared better than Millwey Rise FC's five-a-side tournament at the same venue on the same date. Organisers were forced to cancel the event as only one team registered.

Seaton's Jubilee picnic

SEATON'S Jubilee weekend began in style when hundreds visited the Cliff Field Gardens for a big Jubilee picnic lunch on Saturday, writes Laura Goldsbury Noy.

With a huge number of families setting up their deckchairs and picnic blankets for a celebratory lunch, the gardens were packed full of local groups alongside free entertainment for all the family. Included in the day was face painting, Jubilee Judy and a jubilee clown and lots of traditional fair games such as a coconut shy and Bat A Rat.

To add to the fun, visitors were shown an exciting display from Seaton Fire and Ice Majorettes and Seaton's Voice held a family Olympics with a family tepee challenge and Gutterball challenge with prizes for all.

A day to remember

THE Queen's Diamond Jubilee finished with a bang in Seaton when the town council hosted a long day of celebratory events on Monday.

Seaton's seafront was jam packed with activities including a street market led by Seaton and District Lions on the Esplanade and a number of community stalls ran by local groups and organisations.

A number of entertainers and performers took to the stage at Fisherman's Gap throughout the afternoon and into the late evening bringing live music and fun to the Following a display from Seaton Fire and Ice Majorettes, youngsters were invited to take part in a Junior Town Crier competition to find the loudest young crier in the crowd.

Chosen as the overall winner was 10year-old Alan Gregson-Watkins, who took away a prize and certificate signed by Seaton's mayor, Councillor Peter Burrows.

A major highlight of the day was the Jubilee Slow Bicycle Race where a number of people took part to find the slowest cyclist in the town. The race was split into three categories: under 14s, adults and tandem racers. The groups were set off in staggered heats by Seaton Town Crier David Craner.

The winners of the slow bicycle race were Rory Dyer (under 14s), James Melville for the adults - who came first overall - and John Messenger and Brenda Carter for the tandem race

Jubilee fun in Beer

HUNDREDS poured onto the cobbled streets of Beer to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee with a village street party.

Organised by a handful of villagers, Beer is well known for its celebrations, and the street party held on Sunday didn't disappoint, with a huge number of tables through the village jam packed full of food, drinks and jubilee decora-

There was fun and laughter when visitor to the village, Marian Dangerfield, looked on from the top window above the street party wearing a crown representing the Queen and everyone sang out the national anthem.

The fun continued into the evening with entertainment from local band 'The Barrys' and dancing in the street.

■ ALONGSIDE the main events in the village, Beer Women's Institute celebrated with a new rose garden to commemorate the Queens Diamond Jubilee.

The garden was funded after the group received a special grant from the National Federation of the WI.

It was decided to plant a garden on the clifftop in the village and to clear out and update their original rose garden, created for the NFWI Golden Jubilee in 1965.

After being left for sometime, the old rose garden had sadly overgrown and 1st Beer Scouts have recently taken to tidying up the site, revarnishing the WI bench as part of their Community week.

With the addition of new plants, the original site has been rejuvenated and the rest of the grant was then spent on purchasing plants for the new garden, which has been planted in a diamond shape by East Devon District Council.

The WI would like to thank the Scouts for their hard work in helping them tidy the site and also thank John Scott of Beer Quarry Caves for donating the piece of Beer stone used as a mount for the garden's memorial plaque.

The group would also like to thank Matt and Steve of Cornell Construction for erecting the plaque, which they hope will be remembered and appreciated in celebration of this year's royal

Colyton keeps up the party spirit

IUBILEE SPECIAI

THE party spirit swept across Colyton for an extended weekend of Diamond Jubilee celebrations.

Festivities to mark the Queen's 60-year reign got underway last week when Seaton Rotary Club hosted a cream tea for about 100 senior citizens in Colyford Memorial Hall.

The weekend was kicked off with a party for residents of Road Green in Colyton, who got together on the green to share party food and enjoy the sunshine.

Unfortunately, the good weather didn't last long and organisers were forced to move the children's street party in Market Place inside to Colyton Town Hall on Sunday.

The hall was packed for the occasions, whith hundreds of children enjoying party food and magician entertainment.

Earlier in the afternoon, the town hall also hosted a popular cream tea for the over 60s.

On Sunday evening a special service was held in St Andrew's Parish Church to mark the Diamond Jubilee.

Celebrations continued on Bank Holiday Monday, starting with the annual Colyton Tractor Run. Crowds cheered and waved flags as about 120 tractors set off from the Peace Memorial Playing Fields, many decorated with a jubilee theme, and made their way through East Devon and across the border to Lyme Regis.

Crowds returned to the playing fields later that afternoon for a Party in the Park, including children's sports, a hog roast, live music and a disco in the Reece Strawbridge Youth Centre.

The weekend was topped off by the lighting of the jubilee beacon - one of thousands to be lit across the Commonwealth - and a firework display.

A YOUNG Axminster man will get on his bike - all the way to Land's End.

Twenty-year-old Martin Painter will cycle from the town to Land's End for two reasons - to help promote sustainable living and to raise money for a forthcoming trip to Burkina Faso in Africa.

Martin will leave the UK on July 1st after having been selected to go on the trip organised by the United Nations Association of International Service, a charity which protects and promotes the rights of marginalised people in developing countries. Martin will be in Africa and help the charity in various ways for about two and a half months.

But first there is the small matter of raising £800 towards costs associated with the trip.

He has a number of ideas and one is eveling to Land's End.

A definite start date was still to be set when he spoke to Pulman's View, but it is quite likely that he will set off on Wednesday, June 13th.

His aim is to reach Land's End in no more than five days, and he has pledged to make the bike ride a sustainable one. He will camp overnight and get drinking water from rivers and church ground taps, and for food he will try to catch fish and even a rabbit.

Speaking about his forthcoming visit to Burkina Faso, he said: "I want to help others; contribute my time and life to saving lives."

He would love to her from anyone - individuals, companies or other organisations - willing to sponsor him. More information about Martin and his chosen charity is available online at www.just giving.com/martinafricasupport12

Seaton cartoons are an overlooked cultural event

■ I AM not the originator of the 'Seaton Cartoons' but as a fellow artist, if no one else claims them, l will. I feel it would be beneficial to my career to be involved with such an overlooked cultural event.

I am not totally in agreement with the detail of the cartoons as I think the Chamber of Commerce, who act voluntarily towards producing events for the town, in fact do a good job.

The town council however, having sat in on a few of their public meetings, are the same as any other town council, waiting to draw their overpaid final salary pensions, with no interest in moving forward in any sort of radical way, unable to make a snap decision, pompous, self-important, etc, and should step down in favour of some new blood

The words of Mrs Semple that, 'This gives a dreadful impression of our town to the very visitors they are trying to attract' should be applied to the council and not the creator of one of the best cultural events Seaton has seen for some time. The fact that she, and presumably the silent council members hiding behind her, can't see the cultural value of this, highlights why nothing happens in Seaton.

It is because the town council have no vision. It is here that I am disappointed in the Chamber of Commerce in that they have not made the most of the commercial aspect of this publicity. If you want to give a bad impression of your business don't let your important clients be greeted by tea ladies, or at least people who look like tea ladies.

And so before I pay my twenty quid to join the Chamber of Commerce can I suggest that all concerned start opening their minds to change or leave. Seaton will move forward despite you

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

Councillors urged to vote 'yes'

of Honiton Town Council

Dear Councillors,

Earlier this month a visitor to Honiton was handed a leaflet by the Beehive 'Vote Yes' campaign.

He asked what it was for. When he was told about the Beehive Project and that some people were against it, he said, "So, they want the town to die do they?"

You have not become councillors to help the town to die so I urge you all to vote for Beehive Project at the Extraordinary meeting of the Town Council this week.

The project is the fruit of years of hard work on our behalf by council members. It will be an important facility for the town and local villages, and will bring new life to the whole area.

The opponents have no agreed alternative. Some don't want to spend any money on any building, others want a cheap village hall, and but can't say where, since all central alternative sites have been investigated.

There is an important Supporting Document for your meeting, available for all to read on the Town Council website. It lists 15 questions commonly asked about the Beehive project and gives very clear responses to each

Such questions as: Why not start again and think the whole thing through? Why use this site? What will it cost the taxpayer? How will local groups afford it? How do you know people want this? Do you have a mandate to build this facility? Has the democratic process been followed?

This document should be widely read and not just by councillors. The answers will satisfy all, except those diehards who take the line - "I know what I believe don't confuse me with the facts".

It is very easy to be anti;

£10 Archway Bookshop vouchers are on their way to your door...

very easy to knock things down, but much harder to spend time and effort building for the future.

You are on the Town Council to work for the whole town, young and old alike.

A toy poll called by 10 electors, in which mostly older citizens voted, does not destroy the democratic mandate of Honiton Council and East Devon District Council.

We want our town to live so put 20 years of argument to rest and vote for The Beehive Centre.

New music complex opens at Axe Valley college

A FACILITY known as the Music Hive has been opened at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster.

It will give students an opportunity to try playing various musical instruments providing inspiring opportunities for them to get involved in playing music and to develop their musical talents".

Seventy-seven of them signed up for Just Trying music workshops, which will offer informal opportunities to experi-

There will also be the chance to get involved in playing in a music group such as orchestra, boogie band, rock school and, from September, a rock choir too.

Headteacher Martin Smith said: "We are determined to get as many students as possible involved in high quality music

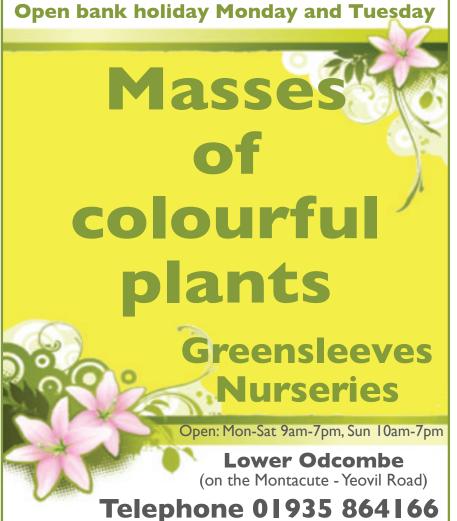

"Times are tough for many families at the moment and we don't want money to be a barrier to students getting involved. That's why we have taken steps to bring down the cost of tuition and to provide free opportunities as well.

"There has always been a buzz around music in the college and we look forward to seeing more students thrive musi-

Axe beer festival organisers look to top last year's event

ORGANISERS of Axminster Beer, Music and Cider Festival hope for continued public support to ensure a smooth relocation of the town's tourist information centre (TIC).

The festival is organised by Axminster Chamber of Commerce, which runs the TIC. This year's festival will be held at the showground on Saturday June 30th from 12noon to 1am.

All monies raised from the festival is ploughed into the TIC, which will relocate next year to Thomas Whitty House as part of the heritage centre project

The aim is to increase the TIC's opening hours after the move, which will come at a cost.

SEATON Phoenix will hold a car boot sale in the Methodist Church car park, Scalwell Lane, on Saturday, June 23rd from 8am-1pm. Spaces are £5 per car and applications should be made to Barbara Dearden-Potter on 01297 24728.

AXE Valley Community College held its Year 11 Leavers' Day at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre on Thursday, May 31st.

Students and staff played various sports and games in the morning before tucking into lunch on the cricket pitch. The day was concluded with speeches and presentations.

Last year's festival yielded a surplus of more than £6,600, the best ever for the four years the chamber has run the festival.

Chamber chairman Shane Morgan said: "We need to increase income for the TIC more than ever because of the forthcoming move.

"Overall it will be a better service as we will be looking towards longer opening hours."

His wife and fellow chamber member Claire, said: "It would be fantastic if we could match last year's surplus."

Both agree that everything seemed to come together last year, and the weather also helped.

After having tried various formulas, including a two-day festival, last year's event proved a great success overall, apart from the fact that somebody tampered with a generator and caused a brief blackout.

At a previous chamber meeting, Shane said that security would be beefed up to prevent a repeat.

beefed up to prevent a repeat.

Shane and Claire said: "We have found a nice and simple formula, and hope for continued public support."
They are also looking for volunteer marshals and bar staff.

This year's extravaganza will, for example, feature 30 different beers plus live music provided by a large selection of bands and artists.

Potential volunteers can call Claire or Shane on 01297 33375 for more information

Festival information - including ticket details and a list of bands and artists - is available online at www.axminsterbeerfestival.org and on posters throughout the town.

On arrival, guests were treated to Pimm's and fruit punch before cutting a special anniversary cake.

A toast to NAFAS was the given by Mrs Thompson.

The vote of thanks was then given before guests finished the afternoon with tea and cake and a brief history of the club by President Janet Durrant.

Job club help well received

AN ALTERNATIVE job club has attracted 1,651 visits from 437 people during its first two years of operation. Axminster Alternative Job Club was the idea of Axminster Churches Together, and it opened its doors in May 2010.

The job club does not receive government funding but is government-recognised and works with agencies like Job Centre Plus on an independent basis.

Apart from displaying vacancies, the job club and its volunteers offer practical help with CV writing, interview techniques and more.

It is free of charge to use Axminster Alternative Job Club and it operates in the Methodist Hall, Lyme Street each Thursday from 9:30am–12:30pm.

Several agencies and organisations attend sessions on a regular basis, including Citizens Advice Bureau (each week), Job Centre Plus (first Thursday of the month) and East Devon Volunteer Agency (last Thursday of the month) to mention only a few.

The club is also known as AJC and in his May report, job club officer Peter Porteous wrote: "During its first two years AJC has become a centre of excellence in its manner of operation and regularly receives visitors who are considering their own similar start-up organisation. The AJC has been approved by Honiton Job Centre Plus, who refers clients to the club."

The club's volunteers have a wide range of experience. Some are running or have run their own businesses whilst others have backgrounds in sectors like

Mr Porteous added: "In October 2010 and then in September 2011, performance surveys amongst a cross–section of visitors were carried out and the reports indicated an extremely high level of satisfaction with what is offered.

"The surveys show the most useful elements were the display of vacancies and the encouragement offered by the volunteers. Other service elements considered useful were the computer facilities, help with CVs, letters and forms."

He also said many people had found it useful to have been directed to other organisations for support and advice.

It is difficult to gauge how many visitors end up with a job as some may find a job without letting volunteers know – but there are several examples of registered clients gaining full or part–time employment.

Mr Porteous concluded by saying: "AJC operates for people of all ages regardless of disability race, religion or sexual orientation."

Country Kitchens - 10 Summer Decorating Ideas

- 1. Divide up the space: Divide a large kitchen into cooking and dining areas with a practical island unit. Fit folding glass doors to maximise the light and lay flagstone flooring or lookalike tiles in varying sizes for rustic, country appeal.
- 2. Choose simple units: Cream kitchen units with shaker-style panelled doors and dark wood bun handles are ideal for the country look. Opt for granite worktops as a contrast to the cabinets and bring in a farmhouse table and chairs for relaxed meals.
- 3. Make the cooker a focal point: Set a classic cream Aga into a chimney breast with a mantel shelf above to create the quintessential country kitchen. A panel of decorative tiles printed with foodie words adds to the effect.
- 4. Make space to breakfast: A curvy island unit supplies valuable workspace and extends to form a glass-topped breakfast bar, providing this kitchen with the wow factor. Contrast cream units with a bank of gleaming built-in ovens.
- 5. Choose calming blue: Pale blue units with contemporary bar handles could look a shade too cool, but a reclaimed teak table and wood flooring provide a warm tone. Accessorise in blue and lime, and bring in a check blind and cushion to draw the scheme together.

6. Dress the window in style: Hang a café curtain in pretty embroidered linen part-way up the window. Make up a lightweight curtain with a deep hem at the top and slide onto an expanding tension rod for an instant fit, no screws required.

- 7. Mix textures: Old beams and an exposed brick wall are a great backdrop for a modern range cooker and extractor hood in gleaming steel. Units are painted in crisp white, with marble effect worktops adding a classic touch.
- 8. Freestanding furniture: Expand your kitchen storage with a practical larder cupboard. Behind the doors practical shelves deal with a multitude of baking utensils and tinned or dried goods. If you have plates to display opt for an open top.
- 9. Select the perfect sink: Turn the sink area into a focal point with a double butler's sink fitted with a traditional bridge tap with ceramic handles. Stitch an under-sink curtain from pretty, summery fabric to hide away clutter.
- 10. Go for eclectic style: In a spacious kitchen located in a barn the mix and match approach works well. Fit cream tongue and groove units, then emphasise the wood floor and beams with a well-scrubbed farmhouse table and assorted chairs.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE Eden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

Designing and installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping service including Lawns Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages. An example is paving where patios can be constructed cost effectively to suits a range of budgets and can be integrated with other elements such as walling or bedding on a planned basis. Paving is usually laid on a concrete mix over hard-core for strength and durability. Layouts can be traditional or "random" in configuration (see insets) and utilize computer aided design.

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSc. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press. Further information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the web pages at a1-environmental.com

- Mazda MX-5 Venture Edition on sale now from £18,995

THE Mazda MX-5 has been named 'Most Popular Convertible' at the 2012 Honest John Awards, adding yet another accolade to the model's ever-expanding trophy cabinet.

This latest award once again proves that the world's best-selling two-seater sportscar remains Britain's favourite convertible – judging for the awards was based on which car reviews on the Honest John website (www.honestjohn.co.uk) have been read the most. The Mazda MX-5 took class honours ahead of a shortlist which also included the Volkswagen Eos, BMW 3-Series Convertible, BMW Z4 and Fiat 500C.

Honest John described the Mazda MX-5 as 'a great sportscar', praising in particular its handling abilities, ease of use and low running costs while the website features many more glowing reviews from owners of the

"This award confirms that the Mazda MX-5 remains a resounding hit among the British public," said Jeremy Thomson, Managing Director for Mazda UK. "In spite of a growing number of competitors in this sector, the consistent level of praise for the MX-5 - from journalists and motorists alike marks it out as the ideal allyear-round convertible.

With the belated British summer just around the corner. Mazda has recently introduced a new special edition of its iconic sportscar the MX-5 Venture Edition. Available in Soft-top or tion, advanced technology, premium interior trim and exclusive exterior colours.

Based on the Mazda MX-5 SE and Sport Tech models, the Venture Edition is available as a 1.8-litre MZR Soft□top (SE) and a 2.0-litre MZR Roadster Coupe (Sport Tech), and is priced at £18,995 and £22,295 (OTR). The car retains all of the dynamic attributes, low running costs and opentop thrills that have cemented the Mazda MX-5's place in the hearts and minds of motorists around the world.

(quite a few I think!) I would like to thank you all for the pleasure in being able to teach you all to drive, and I am sure you will agree that my teaching standards were very high, (and still are!).

As a matter of interest I often wonder how many of you have gone on to improve your driving skills, I know a few of you have gone on to become top drivers in your given careers, such as Police drivers, one I know of became a Police Driving Instructor, Ambulance drivers, Bus and Heavy goods drivers, and one of my passed pupils now drives a tank for the

Axminster 1st XI 99-2 DREW WITH BARNSTAPLE 226-6 ALL OUT

AXMINSTER 1st XIs journey to Barnstaple ended the same way as all the rest of the B division fixtures in the league as rain brought an abrupt end to the

After winning the toss skipper Paul Miller decided that, with the impending forecast, Axminster would try to claim points through taking wickets.

Matthew Pile (3-53) proved to be the main threat where pace was concerned removing the off peg of the opener, before trapping the number three batsmen LBW. It was then Alex Wraight's turn to get into the wickets. He claimed 4 for 44 runs and was extremely unlucky not to claim his fifth after a mix-up in Wraight will be looking forward to next week's fixture as he is only one wicket away from claiming his 100th wicket for the 1st XI in only his 4th sea-

Barnstaple closed on 226-8. In reply Axminster reached 99-2. Ryan Walker (25) and Dan Murnane (21) opened up steadily for Axminster before Walker

Captain Miller was not out on 37 with the team one run short of a n extra point.

Speaking after the game Miller said: " It would have been a very tight finish if the rain had not ruined what was a competitive but enjoyable game".

SEATON 1ST XI 204-5 BEAT

YELVERTON 181 ALL OUT

SEATON 1st XI welcomed unbeaten table-toppers Yelverton to Court Lane on Saturday.

Captain Ben Morgan won the toss and asked Yelverton to bat. Seaton started well with opening bowlers Ben Copp and in-form Phil Collins removing the top three batsman cheaply.

Morgan and Joe Berry continued the good work to leave the visitors on 77-6

Yelverton's captain came in and took charge as he trusted his eye and hit a quick 65 until he tried one shot too many and top edged Berry to Mark Bray.

The tail wagged and the last wicket partnership looked to block out and frustrate the Seaton bowlers until Morgan wrapped up the innings with an inswinging yorker taking leg stump. Yelverton finished 181 all out with Collins and Morgan each taking three

Seaton began their reply losing last week's centurion Ed Hunt for 2. John Waterhouse, Steve Pritchard and Mark Bray all got starts none of the trio manage to carry on.

Enter Mike Wheeler, who put on a 50 partnership with Reid Mawdesly and after the latter had departed, the returning Matt Hancock finished the game off with Wheeler and Seaton won the match by 5 wickets. Wheeler finished on 54 not out and Hancock 45, in their 62 run partnership.

Morgan said: 'It was a fantastic team performance, the bowlers and batsman all did their jobs. It seems as though everyone is beating each other in the league, so we have to keep this going.

"We host Plymouth Civil Service on Saturday, and I have a big selection headache as 1st team player Alex Hunt scored an unbeaten hundred for the

ALL SAINTS 214-8 BEAT SPAXTON 207 ALL-OUT BY 8 RUNS.

AFTER losing the All Saints finally picked up the win their early season performances have warranted, with fine individual performances from Mike Nunns and Josh Short helping them claim victory

Skipper Nunns lost the toss again and was asked to bat, and, after a quick opening partnership, wickets tumbled to leave Saints on 73-4.

A partnership of 94 from the skipper and his brother James brought Saints back into the game though, and Mike brought up his 50 in the 32nd over. James went for 18 though, and when Mike went into slog mode with the help of James Rockett, they ended up with 214-8 from their 45. Nunns bowled for his first ever century (102) with three balls remaining.
In reply, Spaxton batted well and kept the run rate up. Saints were forced to push everybody back and rely on the bowlers beating the bat, and when Rockett (1-52) bowled Davey for 89, wickets began to tumble.

Outstanding spells from Steve Trott and in particular Josh Short, who picked up his best ever figures of 5-21, saw the chase fall just short, as All Saints won by eight runs.

THREE Woodroffe school students swam in the senior ASA South West Regional Championships which recently took place at the newly opened 50m pool at The Plymouth Life

Year 11 students Hannah Pullinger 16, Ben Fowler 16 and Year 10 Abigail Dare 15, represented Chard & District Swimming Club.

To compete at these Championships swimmers have to obtain the necessary regional level qualifying times in events. Hannah achieved qualifying times in ten events this year and selected six to compete in.

She obtained personal best times in five of these, and also qualified for the finals in the 16 year Girls 100 m Breaststroke coming 4th, and 50m Breaststroke coming 2nd winning the silver medal and equalling her own recent Open Age Club Record in this event

Ben achieved qualifying times in three events and swam in all three at the Championships, again setting some personal best times. He made the 16 year Boys finals in the 100 Back-stroke coming 10th, and 50m Backstroke coming 7th. Abigail achieved her qualifying times in eight events and swam in five at the Championships, also achieving several personal best times. Abi made it into the 15 year Girls final for the 50 Backstroke coming 8th.

Whilst at the Championships the swimmers were treated with an unexpected visit to the pool by Olympic GB Team diver Tom Daley who now trains there; they were able to watch him in action in the new diving pool and afterwards the girls all took the chance to meet and be photographed with him; quite a weekend all round!

The race starts in Edinburgh but runners are quickly diverted out to the coast and along to Musselburgh.

Anyone hoping for a sea breeze to cool them down en-route was disappointed as the temperature just seemed to go up and up! Clare was pleased to finish in 4 hours 51 seconds.

Honiton's Stephen Boyes joined Axe Valley Runners' Geoff Woodward and Steve Reynolds to complete the third Forces March which raises funds for the Veterans Charity.

The challenge involves completing the equivalent of five marathons in five days. Participants make their way from Ilfracombe in the stunning North Devon coast through Exmoor, over the Quantock Hills and onwards through rural Somerset finally crossing much of Salisbury Plain to arrive at the finish point at Bulford Camp, Wiltshire.

Runners found the blistering heat in the mid day sun slowed them up a bit but Steve still managed to complete the distance in an overall time of 22 hours 26mins.

Donations are welcome by visiting the Just Giving web site. Nine Honiton RC members took part in the local Talaton Trotter on Jubilee Day last Saturday and it was a relief that the temperature had cooled.

Steve Davey was first back for Honiton in 13th position in 53 minutes 12 seconds. His biggest rival Bruce Straw-bridge was next back in exactly 55 minutes in 20th place. Roger Saunders came 26th in 57:11 followed by Judy Davey in 39th place in 1:00:22.

The terrain suited Nick Bradley-Carter

as there was quite a bit of road and it was undulating rather than hilly. He fin ished in 46th place in 1:01:50. Honiton's newest member Yordanos Teferi definitely doesn't do hills as he is more used to sprinting 100m for Ethiopia, his native country, rather than seven miles but he bravely tackled the race coming 48th in 1:02:45.

John Burgess was next in 50th place in 1:03:08. Olivia Higginson finished in 55th place in 1:05:29 with Louise Saunders finish in 66th place in 1:10:40
